BRIDGEPORT TO PLAY CRESCENTS

All set for another big night in lympic hall tenight, when the Naturals of Bridgepart appear here for and will keep the fans on edge until he fans are sure to see a treat as the ationals have quite a reputation whistle. The fans are sure to see a treat as the Nationals have quite a reputation around their home city and New York. Last season they lost only three games sut of 34 during the entire ecason. McGraw, who plays the pivot position for the visitors played for several seasons with the Blue Ribbons, known throughout the state and New York as a high class aggregation. Cogan of St. Mary's of Baltimore, the school that turned out the famous "Babe" limit is recognized as a star; Maher and Hayes will holp out at forward positions. Clancy and Kiely are the stardy guards who will try to hold the aturdy guards who will try to hold the local hoop tossers from running up a hig score.

The Crescents will have the famous Marks brothers again and "Chorky" at center has promised Manager Benoit that he will use some of the skill that made him and his brother famous, instead of the rough game of last Saturday. Sam, as usual, will depend upon his fine floor work. He will be ably assisted by Murphy. These two men are considered the sturdiest pair of backs on any team and if the Nationals can show anything to pass these two men, they will have to show some chass. Milis, as usual, will show the fans some classy hoop tossing, and Benjamin will surely strike his stride and show the fans some good work. This quintet is surely the best that has ever been put together on one team and they deserve the support of the fans in bringing the laurels to Norwich.

Norwich.

The preliminary game between the K of C. 2nd of Williamntic and the Crescents Ind promises to be a hummer. These teams are pretty evenly matched in size and skill and a good battle is looked for. They will line up as follows: Crescents 2nd—Finlayson and Swanson, forwards; Grebe, center, Murphy and Sullivan, guards.

Williamntic E. of C. 2nd—Moriarty, Summers Haggerty, forwards; O'Brien, Grenier

WILLIAMS TO PLAY YALE

INSTEAD OF HARVARD Williamstown, Mass., Dec. 16—The Williams college football eleven will play Yale next year instead of Harvard and will meet its real rival, Amherst, a week earlier than before under the schedule that was announced today. The schedule calls for a game with Yale at New Haven Oct. 15, and with Wesleyan at Middletown, Conn., Oct. 13.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

MARKET WAS IBREGULAR New Tork, Dec. 10.—The stock mar-ket was feverishly irregular and heavy again today, prices of many prominent shares recording new low levels for th year, though showing surprising rallyin, power in the later denting. Shorts were extremely aggressive, ex-Shorts were extremely aggressive, extending their operations to the more representative issues in the railroad divisions, where gross declines of one to almost five points accelerated the renewed depression in industrials and specialties.

Liquidation of the investment transportations give rise to much gossip and rumor affection the financial standing of various professional interest, but in well-informed quarters selling of these stocks was regarded as in the nature of a beliated cleaning up of buil pools.

Further fight was thrown on the backward soudillons in the steel industry by the November statement of the U. S. steel emperation, which disclosed a decrease in unfilled orders of $15,000 tons, far exceeding all forceasts.

This draws the bookings of the steel erporation down to the lowest aggregate of the year, but leaves the total at slight to over 5.809,009 tons, as against little more than 7.000,000 tons in the same po-
